

Seattle Deaf Film Festival

March 30 - April 1, 2018 Deaf Spotlight will host the fourth Seattle Deaf Film Festival (SDFF) at Northwest Film Forum in Seattle, WA. We believe in cultivating a vibrant community of emerging and experienced Deaf filmmakers, actors, and producers. Any filmmakers from the Deaf community are welcome to participate. During this three-day festival, you will have the opportunity to see various short and feature films by members of the Deaf community! We offer weekend passes, day passes or individual tickets for our festival. We got a 30% discount code: supermoon for DeafBlind attendees. Hope to see you there!

Please send in your request with specific needs to ticketingsds@gmail.com with specific needs BY MARCH 15, 2018. We will try our best to accommodate.

Read more about our festival and schedule: www.deafspotlight.com.

Buy tickets: <https://tinyurl.com/sdff2018>

Student/ Senior Citizen (65+) Pass: $60

Adult Weekend Pass: $80

Student/ Senior Citizen (65+) Saturday Pass:

Student/ Senior Citizen (65+) Sunday Pass:

Student/ Senior Citizen (65+) Individual Ticket: $12

Festival Schedule:

Friday, March 30, 2018

Wild Prairie Rose @ 7 PM

Opening Night reception @ 9 PM

Saturday, March 31, 2018

Top Secret Film @ 10:30 AM

Documentaries @ 2 PM

UK Films @ 4:30 PM

Reverse Polarity @ 8 PM

Sunday, April 1, 2018

Individual Experiences @ 10:30 AM
Dimensions @ 1:30 AM
A Silent Voice @ 5:30 PM
Closing Night reception to follow